Set to rock the kazbar this Saturday night is the hidden talent of three piece band Smokin' Lady Fingers. Appearing in a 'one show only' performance at the Brain Boru, these boys are proving to be in high demand. Consisting of only two guitarists, and a drummer, the band is capable of producing an incredible blues/roots sound. Vocally unique, frontman Sean intrigues audiences with his unusual and remarkable lyrics that are appreciated by all ages. Originally from the Macedon ranges, the Smokin' Lady Fingers are relatively new to the Bendigo scene. Having released their brilliant 10 track LP earlier this year, the band is receiving great enthusiasm for more shows, and further recording. This is a performance not to be missed, as Smokin' Lady Fingers won't be returning until mid December.
